On this day in 1954, Hungary faced Brazil in the World Cup quarterfinals in Bern, Switzerland. What started as a highly anticipated match turned into one of the most chaotic games in tournament history — dubbed the "Battle of Berne."

Hungary won 4-2, but the game featured multiple red cards, on-field fights, and even a post-match locker room brawl (with boots and bottles reportedly involved). Three players were sent off, and it's remembered more for the mayhem than the goals!

FIFA MISSING PERSONS REPORT
